Willow Grove No. 54 of the Woodman circle, entertained with a reception on Friday evening at the Knights of Columbus hall in honor of supreme guardian Emma B. Manchester and district manager Thomas, who are visitors in the city. The officers of Willow Grove, in full regalia, received the visitors and, after a short address of welcome by guardian Malone, the supreme guardian was introduced, and thanked the Woodman circle and the Woodmen of the World for their cordial and hearty welcome to the city. At the close of her address the supreme guardian was presented with a beautiful bouquet, tied with ribbons in the lodge colors.

The program was given under the direction of Messrs. Holford, Mudd and Low. A vocal solo by Miss Beason was beautifully rendered. District manager Thomas was called upon for an address, responding with a helpful talk on fraternalism, and urging the Woodmen of the World to cooperate with the circle.

Following the address, a vocal solo was very pleasingly given by Miss Amy Schutz, accompanied by Mrs. J. B. Thew.

Willow Grove drill team gave a ritualistic drill in official regalia, sovereign Lizzie Mudd, captain.

"When the Swallows Homeward Fly," a vocal duet by Miss Amy Schutz and Mr. Rogers, was much enjoyed.

A special drill was given for the guests by E. Low and team, which called forth hearty applause.

Mrs. J. B. Thew closed the program with a piano solo.

A luncheon was served, the color scheme of lavender and green being attractively carried out in the menu.

The Shakespeare club will meet semi-monthly, and Mrs. J. B. Thew, North Stanton street, will be the next hostess.

The Beta Beta club was very pleasantly entertained this afternoon at the home of Miss Sue Latner.

The next regular club day meeting of the woman's club will be held Wednesday, Dec. 7, at the home of Mrs. W. R. Brown, on West Rio Grande street. Being the fifth Wednesday in the month, there will be no meeting of the club this afternoon.

The meeting of the W. C. T. U., which was to have been held this week, has been postponed on account of the revival meetings at the Tabernacle.

The meeting of the Sunshine society, which was to have been held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. C. Davis, has been postponed to Dec. 9.

Mrs. R. T. Hanks and A. S. Howard entertained the women of the Calvary Baptist church yesterday afternoon in the church parlor. The early part of the afternoon was spent in sewing and was followed with a mission program, refreshments and a social hour.

For Christmas A KODAK

Give the boy, or girl, a kodak for Christmas, and you have opened a field of wholesome occupation and interest with practically no limit to its pleasant possibilities.

Then too, when you give the boy, or girl, a kodak you are giving something of value to the whole family. The "snapshots" taken by a kodak in the hands of the youthful photographer catch the truly characteristic pose, the real expression of the moment. In years to come, the kodak book filled with pictures, each one of them recalling a memory will be a treasure beyond value.

We offer for your selection everything in Eastman Kodaks, from the "Brownie" at $1.00 to the folding kodaks at $35.00. If you have a boy or girl who is interested, or whom you wish to interest, in the pleasant field of photography, begin with a Brownie. Then, another year, perhaps, a larger kodak with more possibilities will be in order.

"Brownie" Kodaks $1.00 to $12.00

Box Kodaks at $5.00 to $12.00

Folding Pocket Kodaks $10.00 to $35.00

Kodak Supplies

Besides the kodaks themselves, you will find here all manner of supplies—the "Brownie" Developing Box, the Kodak developing Tank, Enlarging Cameras, etc. The boy, or girl, who already possesses a kodak will be glad to receive any one of these things.
